In a narration by our beloved prophet Muhammad (SAW), it is stated: "The best of you are those who are best to their families, and I am the best of you to my family."

How can we as Muslim individuals living in the 21st century live up to this standard and be the best we can to our families? The understanding of the main problems we face in building strong families is crucial in finding the answer to this question and many others we face today.

An organization dedicated to increasing the awareness of issues requiring the attention and action of the Muslim community, United for Change is dealing with a very important issue this September: the importance of family in our lives.

United for Change's 'Our families, Our foundation' conference will be taking place on the 25th of September, 2010 in Montreal, at the Palais des Congrès Montreal Convention Center. This conference is an English-French Bilingual conference and will take place from 10am to 8pm.

Dans une narration de notre prophète bien-aimé Muhammad (SAW), il a dit: «Le meilleur d'entre vous est celui qui est le mieux envers sa famille, et je suis le meilleur entre vous envers ma famille.»

Comment pouvons-nous, en tant qu'individus musulmans vivant au 21e siècle être à la hauteur de cette norme et être le meilleur que nous pouvons envers nos familles? La compréhension des principaux problèmes auxquels nous sommes confrontés dans la construction des familles solides est essentielle pour trouver la réponse à cette question et bien d'autres auxquels nous sommes confrontés aujourd'hui.

Une organisation dédiée à la sensibilisation des questions nécessitant l'attention et l'action de la communauté musulmane, United for Change traite d'un très important sujet ce Septembre: l'importance de la famille dans nos vies. «Nos familles, Notre Fondations» une conférence de United for Change aura lieu le 25 Septembre 2010 à Montréal, au Palais des Congrès. Cette conférence est une conférence bilingue anglais-français et aura lieu de 10 heures à 20 heures.
