MSA Presidential Elections 2012 Results

Bismillah Al-rahman Al-raheem,

In the name of Allah, the most merciful, the most gracious,

As many of you already know, the MSA presidential elections 2012 took place on April 5th, 6th, & 10th. The candidates were two incredible brothers from this year's executive team; Abdel Latif Khoumaissi, and Murtaza Khan. For as long as I've known them, both have demonstrated dedication to the Islamic student... movement and have filled their various positions with full responsibility and competence. I have no doubt that either one of them would have filled the position to the best of their ability and been very effective team leaders. However, one had to take the position. 65 students came out and exercised their right to vote.

The results are as follows:

- Abdel Latif Khoumaissi: 26 Votes
- Murtaza Khan: 37 Votes
- Abstentions: 1 Vote
- Disqualifications: 1 Vote

Congratulations to our brother Murtaza Khan. We pray to Allah swt guide him to fulfill this responsibility, and to that which is best for the Muslim student community here at Concordia. The new MSA term will begin May 1st Inshallah. Until then, Murtaza and I will work with the current executives towards a smooth transition to the next term. We ask Allah swt to bless this association and its members for many years to come.

Baraka Allahu feekum jamee'an

Your brother,

Museb N. Abu-Thuraia
