Canadian Institute of Islamic Civilization – Inaugural fundraising event

Date: October 6, 2012

Numerous Muslim Brotherhood entities took part in the event:

1. It was organized for the Canadian Institute of Islamic Civilization;
2. It was held at the Islamic Community Centre in Brossard;
3. It was advertised by the Centre communautaire Laurentien;
4. It featured Munir El-Kassem who is based in London (Ontario)
5. It was sponsored by MAC, the Canadian Muslim Forum and the Islamic Community Center.

A poster and a Facebook page advertised the CIIC's fundraising event.

Excerpt from the Facebook page (Original spelling respected):

The Canadian Institute of Islamic Civilization cordially invites you to its inaugural Fundraising Event & Feature presentation:

One of North America's first and finest Islamic Heritage projects. The CIIC is strategically located in the heart of downtown Montreal and will house a mosque, confererence hall, Museum of Islamic Civilization, gallery of Islamic Art and Institute of Islamic Studies.

The graphic part of the poster features a large, ornate archway filled with intricate Islamic calligraphy in gold and black. Below the archway is a circular diagram with five interconnected arrows forming a clockwise cycle. The arrows are colored yellow, green, purple, blue, and orange. Each arrow points to a word: 'Art' (yellow), 'Spirituality' (green), 'Heritage' (purple), 'Education' (blue), and 'Dialog' (orange). At the top of the graphic, there are logos for 'Sponsors' (including 'CC' and 'MA') and 'The Islamic Community Centre of Brossard'. At the bottom, there is a logo for 'Celebrating Diversity' and 'Inspiring Creativity' with the Arabic text 'مركز المجتمع الإسلامي بروارد'.
